To the PUBLIC, New-York, Oct. 16, 1766.

It is now upwards of six Years that I have published a weekly News Paper, under the Title of the New-York Gazette or Weekly Post-Boy, which I have the Pleasure to think has been generally acceptable, and publicly useful: But having now Occasion to alter the Title of my Paper, I hope for the same favourable Reception of the NEW-YORK JOURNAL or GENERAL ADVERTISER, that my Paper met with under the former Title; since it will be conducted with the same Spirit, and to the same Ends,—the Suppression of Evil, and the Promotion of public and private Happiness. The Reasons of altering my Title are these, 1st, for the Sake of Distinction, as I am inform'd Mr. PARKER intends to publish a Paper under the former Title; and 2d, because, as he formerly publish'd a Paper under that Title, I would not avail myself of any Advantages from a Name originally assumed by him. The Number, for the Sake of more easily settling with my Customers, will run regularly on from my last Week's Paper.

New-York, March 18, 1767.

At a COUNCIL held at Fort-George, in the City of New-York, on Wednesday the 11th Day of March, 1767.

P R E S E N T, His EXCELLENCY
Sir Henry Moore,
Baronet, Captain General, &c.

Mr. Horsmanden, Mr. Delancey,
Mr. Smith, Mr. Apthorpe,
Mr. Watts, Mr. Reade,
Mr. Walton,

THE Council having duly considered all the Proofs and Allegations offered on the Part of the Complainants, Daniel Nimham, and the other Indians of the Wappinger Tribe, in Support of their Claim to certain Lands, granted by Letters Patent, to Adolph Philipse, dated the Seventeenth of June, 1697; as likewise, the Proofs offered by Roger Morris, Beverley Robinson, and Philip Philipse, in Support of their Title, under the said Adolph Philipse; and after admitting every Kind of Proof, that could be offered by the Complainants.

UPON the whole Matter, His Excellency the Governor, and the Council, are unanimously of Opinion, and do declare, That the Indians now living, of the Wappinger Tribe, have no Right, Title, or Claim to the Lands granted as afore said, by Letters Patent to the said Adolph Philipse; that the original Indian Title thereto, hath been long since extinguished, by Purchases honestly and fairly made: That the Title to the said Lands, both in Law and Equity, is vested in the present Proprietors under the said Letters Patent, notwithstanding any Indian Claim whatever: And that the Complaint of the said Indians, to which they have been wholly excited by white Persons, with a View to Countenance and Support their own illegal Pretensions to the Lands, is vexatious and unjust, and as such ought to be, and is hereby accordingly dismissed.

To the P R I N T E R,
S I R,
THE General Assembly of this Colony, having at their last Session, as I am inform'd, passed an Act for building a Bridewell, or House of Correction in this City, for the Confinement and Discipline of idle and disorderly People, who so much infest this and many other Places;—and as the Plan of the said Building, is said to be now under Consideration; I send you herewith an Account, taken from an old News-Paper, of the Form and Regulation of the Rasp-House at Amsterdam, which I take to be a Thing of the Kind wanted here,—and therefore the Description of it, republished in your Paper, may be of some Service to the Gentlemen entrusted with the Construction.

An Account of the Rasp-House at Amsterdam;
THE Dutch being sensible, that more Disorders in a State, are owing to Crimes of a lesser, than of a more heinous Nature, as the latter are but seldom perpetrated, the former every Day, where suffered; and considering that it is by Means of the former or lesser Crimes, that People harden themselves by Degrees, to the Commission of greater, prudently determined, that no Crime in their Country should be without an adequate Punishment. With this Intent, they set up that famous Building the Rasp-House at Amsterdam, in which are several Orders of Punishment, for the Different Degrees of Vice; the Idle are made only to work, the Wicked and Idle are to work and are punish'd too; and there are other Apartments, where softer Means are used for the Reclaiming less hardened Offenders, and where Confinement is the only Punishment; good Advice supplying, and that often very happily, the Place of the Rod or Whip; and the Effect of this, is not only, that we have there no such shocking Scenes as are frequently to be met with in London, but we bring back many to Industry and Virtue, whom you leave to the Gallows.

The Entry to the Rasp-House, is through two strong Gate-ways of Stone, which lead into a spacious Square; over the outer Gate there is a Decoration adapted to the Place; it is a Carrier loaded with Rasps, Saws, and other Implements of Industry, used in the House; his Waggon not drawn by Horses, but by Wolves, Bears, Lyons, and Tygers, which the Carrier drives along with a Whip; over it are these Words.

Virtus est domare, quæ cuncti pavent.
That is: Is is the Work of Virtue, to tame those Creatures which all Men fear.

Over the other Gate-way, are carv'd two strong naked Fellows, with their Legs fetter'd, rasping of Logwood. For Logwood being a Commodity of great Trade with the Dutch, they make their Criminals Rasp that, as we make ours beat Hemp. Round the Square on the Ground Floor, are the Prison Rooms, which have Iron Bars for Windows, and in the Middle of the Square stands a Pillar, on the Top of which is the Figure of Justice, with a Pair of Scales in one Hand and a Sword in the other. To this Pillar the unruly Criminals are ty'd to be whip'd: These lower Wards receive all the Criminals, Thieves and Vagabonds, not guilty of capital Crimes; these according to their Demerits, are whip'd oftner or seldomer at the Post, and are confined in these Apartments, and made to labour hard in the Rasping of Logwood. Over these, are another Set of Apartments, into which they put idle and vicious Boys, Vagrants, Strollers and Beggars, who are troublesome to People in the Streets; these are all made to work according to their several Abilities, and the Boys have a School where they are taught to read and write at the public Expence, and often this proves a Nursery of valuable and industrious Persons.

The Place where the Building stands, was formerly a Convent, fam'd for miraculous Cures of Lameness and other Disorders, and it seems yet to possess the same Virtue; more Persons having been cured of pretended Lameness and other Disorders, at the Post in the Middle of this Square, than by all the Doctors and Surgeons in many Centuries.

Behind these public Wards, there is a private One, in which are kept undutiful and wicked Youths, who are sent thither by their Parents or Guardians; here they have no Punishment beside the Confinement, and are visited by sober Persons, who talk to them of the Nature of their Crimes, and try to infill into their Minds a Love of Virtue and a Hatred of Vice. Every one has here his private Cell, unknown to one another, and to all the World; and here they are kept till they give Hopes and Promises of Amendment; they are then returned to their Parents with all Secrecy, and the Absence is called a Journey into the Country. Nor is this Part of the House kept for Children alone, for a Wife making the Grounds of her Complaint against her Husband appear, may send him thither in the same Manner. I need not, ask, with all these Advantages, both public and private, whether it would not be a very valuable Thing, to have a Raffle-House at London, (and New-York) as well as at Amsterdam.

I am, Sir, Your very humble Servant,
Philo Hollandus.

On Monday last arrived here the Ship Peggy, Captain John Lawrence, from Amsterdam, which he left the 16th of December, in Company with Captains Henderson and Pool, of this Place, and a Sloop Christopher Whipple, Master, belonging to Rhode-Island, bound to Surinam. Captain Lawrence touched at Cowes, which he left the 16th of January last, with Capt. Gillon for Charles-Town, South-Carolina, and five Ships from London for Jamaica. He left Capt. Berton of this Place, at Spithead, where he had put in, in bad Weather. The New-York, Lawrence, of this Port, was also arrived in England. On the 10th of March, Lat. 26, 30, Lon. 69. Spoke Capt. Ventries, from St. Eustatia for New-Haven.

From the SALISBURY JOURNAL, of the 29th of December, we have the following Advices.

The Journal of a Wiltshire Curate.

MONDAY—Received ten pounds from my Rector, Dr. Snarl, being one half year's salary—obliged to wait a long time before my admittance to the Doctor, and even when admitted, was never once asked to sit down or refresh myself, though I had walked eleven miles—Item, the Dr. hinted he could have the Curacy filled for fifteen pounds a year.

Tuesday—Paid nine pounds to seven different people; but could not buy two second-hand pair of black breeches offered me as a great bargain, by Cabbage the taylor, my wife wanting a petticoat above all things, and neither Betsey nor Polly having a shoe to go to church.

Wednesday—My wife bought a petticoat for herself, and shoes for her two daughters, but unluckily in coming home, dropped half a guinea through a hole, which she had never before perceived in her pocket, and reduced all our cash in the world to half a crown.—Item, chid my poor woman for being afflicted at the misfortune, and tenderly advised her to depend upon the goodness of God.

Thursday—Received a note from the ale-house at the top of the hill, informing me that a Gentleman begged to speak to me on pressing business, went and found it was an unfortunate member of a strolling company of players, who was pledged for seven-pence half penny.—In a struggle what to do—

The baker, though we had paid him but on Tuesday, quarrelled with us, to avoid giving any credit in future; and George Greasy the butcher sent us word that he heard it whispered, how the Rector intended to take a Curate, who would do the parish duty at an inferior price; and therefore, though he would do any thing to serve me, advised me to deal with Peter Paunch, at the upper end of the town; mortifying reflections these!—But a want of humanity is in my opinion a want of Justice—the Father of the universe lends his blessings to us, with a view that we should relieve a brother in distress, and we consequently do no more than pay a debt, when we perform an act of benevolence. Paid the stranger's reckoning out of the shilling in my pocket, and gave him the remainder of the money, to prosecute his Journey.

Friday—A very scanty dinner, and pretended therefore to be ill, that by avoiding to eat, I might leave something like enough for my poor wife and children.—I told my wife what I had done with the shilling; the excellent creature, instead of blaming me for the action, blessed the goodness of my heart, and burst into tears.—Mem. Never to contradict her as long as I live—for the mind that can argue like her's, though it may deviate from the more rigid Sentiments of prudence, is even amiable for its indiscretion, and in every lapse from the severity of economy, performs an act of virtue, superior to the value of a kingdom.

Saturday—Wrote a sermon, which on Sunday—I preached at four different parish churches, and came home excessively wearied, and excessively hungry; no more money than two-pence halfpenny in the house; but see the goodness of God! the strolling player, whom I had relieved, was a man of fortune, who accidentally heard that I was as humane as I was indigent, and from a generous eccentricity of temper, wanted to do me an essential piece of service: I had not been an hour at home when he came in, and declaring himself my friend, put a 50 l. note into my hand, and the next day presented me with a living of 300 l. a year.

L O N D O N. December 27.

A letter from Civita-Vecchia, dated Dec. 1, says, "In former years, at this season, our harbour used to be filled with British ships laden with salt-fish; but this year we have had none of them; and French cod is likewise very scarce. The inactivity of this branch of trade is attributed to the necessity which the state has been under to give its whole attention to the providing of corn."

By a letter from New-Providencé we learn, that a dreadful earthquake had happened in the Gulph of Darien, which had rent the country a great way inland, and opened a new river for many leagues westward.

A noble Lord at the west end of the town, within the last week, got a 3000l. annuity by the death of his lady's mother, against whose life he pitted a black gelding in the country.

We hear from Barnstable, in Devonshire, that upwards of two hundred families in that county have been engaged to embark, at the sole expence of Dennis Rolle, Esq; for his new settlement on the river St. John, in East-Florida.

Thursday being Christmas-day, their Majesties and several of the Royal Family, preceded by the Heralds, went to the Chapel Royal and heard divine service, and a sermon preached by the Archbishop of York, Lord Almoner, after which their Majesty's advanced to the altar, and received the sacrament, from the hands of the Bishop of London, assisted by the Sub-Dean; his Majesty afterwards made the usual offering of the Byzant or wedge of gold, according to annual custom.

We are told that there is advice by the Pacific East-Indiaman, that Lord Clive is on his journey over land for England; that he travels in a most superb manner, with a great number of caravans loaded with the richest goods and valuables that country produces, accompanied by many of the rich merchants, who took the advantage of the honour of his company, and the protection of his numerous convoy by the troops of the several countries through which he passes. But what is the most agreeable news, is, his Lordship's having settled several Councils and Governments on the most permanent foundation. He has opened a dock at Bengal for building men of war, large enough for building two fifty gun ships at a time.

His Lordship has also secured his jaghire in perpetuity on the best security the country can afford.

Tuesday night the axle-tree of his Excellency George Pitt's chariot broke, by which accident, his coachman and footman were thrown off, and the horses ran away with the carriage, though without one wheel, through Half-Moon-street and Curzon-street; but happily taking to the narrow passage, between the Earl of Bute's and the Duke of Devonshire's, they were jammed in so as not to be able to advance or recede; by which providential circumstance, his Excellency's life was preserved.

Last week died, at Noke in Oxfordshire, John King, a poor labouring man of that place, aged 130. He was low in stature, stooped a little as he walked, which he did by the assistance of a couple of sticks, as he did not use crutches, and his eyesight served him to the last.

If the present frost should hold for a fortnight, so as to lock up the river, it is supposed this metropolis will be nearly destitute of bread, as the stock of flour, according to the bakers, will not hold out for the above time.

Malt is so extremely scarce, that the porter brewers do not brew half the quantity they generally do at this season of the year.

Hops are cheaper now than they have been for several years past.

Friday morning seven vessels, laden with foreign corn, arrived at their moorings in the river; as did also a fleet of colliers from Newcastle.

It has been remarked, that during the last five administrations, they have all had the majority in Parliament, and carried every point they proposed; a convincing proof of the utility of each of their measures; so that the frequent changes of Ministers and placemen cannot be owing to any bad conduct, but to a very laudable maxim lately adopted, of equally rewarding all the nobility and gentry in rotation with pensions, places, reversions, sinecures, &c. &c. And we hear that shortly the time will be limited for the continuance of each; which will be the best scheme ever yet adopted to quiet all parties, as they will be sure of being rewarded in succession.

Letters from Genoa advise, that the report of a treaty for ceding Corsica to a great King, or the brother in law of a great King, is without foundation.

The declaration which M. de Benoit, the Prussian Minister, has presented to the dyet of Poland on the subject of the majority of votes, decreed by the dyet of convocation in 1764, contains what follows:

"The last dyet of convocation of 1764, having enacted, in establishing the commissions of the treasury and army, that the affairs relating to those two departments should be decided by majority of votes in the dyets; the states, assembled in the present dyet, are divided in their opinions, through the generality of the terms of that law. Several members have attempted, by a forced explication, to extend it even to the principal matters of the state, such as those of establishing new taxes, and augmenting the troops; but the true patriots are sensible that this would totally change the form of government, and subvert, to all intents and purposes, the Polish liberty, which is the most precious advantage of this illustrious nation.

"And, as his majesty the King of Prussia, as a friend, neighbour, and ally of the republic of Poland, as well as from the engagements of his crown, has at heart the unalterable preservation of the form of government of this state, as well as that of its liberty in its full extent, and the rights of all in general and of every individual in particular; the undersigned binds himself obliged to represent and to declare in the name of the King his master, that his Majesty can never look on with indifference when the principal points of the form of government of Poland are in question; and consequently demands, that the said law of the dyet of convocation be made clear by the present dyet, and that it be plainly enacted, that the majority of votes shall not take place, when the republic is not confederated, in any thing which relates to the establishment of taxes and the augmentation of the troops; but that those things shall entirely depend on unanimity, as well as all the other affairs of the state, which the liberum veto must preserve in its whole force.

"This the subscribed has orders to demand in the name of the King his master, flattering himself that his majesty the King of Poland, whose patriotic sentiments are known, as well as all those who are animated with the same zeal, will unite to grant without delay this demand so just, and so salutary to the Polish liberty, in order that they may not be exposed to all the evils which must necessarily result from the contrary, as his majesty the King of Prussia, from his friendship and his engagements with the republic, cannot avoid giving all possible proofs of the interest he takes in the unalterable preservation of the form of government of Poland as well as in that of the prerogatives and liberties of the nation, and the true patriots, which are incompatible with such dangerous innovations.

Done at Warsaw, the 11th of November, 1766.

[Signed]
G. DE BENOIT."

It is not a little remarkable, that one of the conditions which a noble Duke demanded in a late conference with the Obsequious Minister, was the very peerage last created; and which was then refused. It has now been granted, not for the same purpose of conciliating the great interest which proposed it, but upon the principal of Divide et impera.

INTELLIGENCE EXTRAORDINARY.

It is said that in an altercation which lately happened between a patriot Earl now in a very high employment, and a great personage who lately held a very high employment in the law, the latter asked the former, "Who is my master, you or the K—?" upon which their conference ended very abruptly.

Extract of a letter from Geneva, Dec. 20.

"We are at the eve of seeing our fate determined; the mediator's plan is to be laid before us in general council, on Monday next, negatives (or, to speak more properly, the French party) are in hopes it will pass; but we, the representing citizens, are still almost unanimous against it; and I dare say it will be rejected, notwithstanding all the threats the French ministry have made use of. Let the French King's anger be ever so great at our refusing to submit to his will and pleasure, he cannot send any troops to support his decree without violating his faith; and if that was the case, we'll put ourselves under the protection of all the Protestant powers in Europe. In short we are determined to sacrifice our lives before we give up our liberties and our ancient constitution.

"We will not tamely permit it to be said, that we have been bullied by the French threatnings. If France's power is great, our love of liberty and patriotic spirit is no less.

"You shall be informed of what next Monday will produce; in the mean time I remain."

Private letters from Leghorn mention, that a body of Sardinian troops would soon make their appearance in the island of Corsica, in consequence of some recent engagements between the republic of Genoa and the court of Turin.

This morning the Lords of trade met, when Lord Clare took his seat as first Lord.

Dec. 27. The opposition, we hear, has gained considerable ground since the late recess from business.

Extract of a letter from an English gentleman at Amsterdam, to his friend in London, dated December 18.

"It is the general opinion of our politicians here, that a fresh war in the empire will soon be kindled. The disposition of the King of Prussia, they say, may easily be discovered; and whether the pretext be unanimity in the dyet of Poland, or any other seeming foreign cause, the ordering of his officers immediately to join their respective corps, and other internal regulations, evince that such an event is expected at Berlin. Whatever may be the pretence, we doubt not but the cause may be traced to the ancient bone of contention Silesia. It is however to be hoped, that as England can derive no advantage from the entire possession of that province, either by Austria or Brandenburg, we shall have prudence enough not to intermeddle in a quarrel, which should no way interest us. If we are not convinced the balance of power is a phantom which we have been pursuing for upwards of a century, we should at least be convinced that the national debt it hath created really exists, and must necessarily be increased whenever we renew the chase."

The Princess of Brunswick's visit to Woburn, it is said, means something more than mere Christmas entertainment.

A writer of some eminence was lately applied to by a great man for the assistance of his pen, and promised a lucrative office in case his productions were attended with success. "Give me the place first, my Lord, (says the author) for it is just, I should entertain a doubt of your honour, since you entertain a doubt of my abilities."

Whitehall, December 15. The King has been pleased to grant unto the Right Honourable Wills, Earl of Hillsborough, of the Kingdom of Ireland, and Lord Harwich, Baron of Harwich in the county Essex, in the Kingdom of Great-Britain, and the Right Hon. Francis Baron Le Despencer, the Office of Post-master General, in the room of the Right Hon. William Earl of Besborough, of the Kingdom of Ireland, and Baron Ponsfoby, of Syonby, in the county of Leicester, in the Kingdom of Great-Britain, and the Right. Hon. Thomas Grantham, Baron of Grantham, in the county of Lincoln.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint Alexander Udny, Richard Dauber, George Burges, and Thomas Lockart, Esquires, together with George Brown, Esq; in the room of George Drummond, Esq; deceased, to be Commissioners for the receipt and management of his Majesty's revenues of excise in Scotland.

Salisbury, Dec. 29. On Tuesday the 18th inst. William Hill, Esq; Governor of Tobago, was married to Miss Popham, of Newport, in the said island; a young lady of 30,000. fortune.

Norwich, Dec. 17. Yesterday a reprieve came for the six following convicts under sentence of death viz. John Crowforth, James Fleming, James Lincoln, Robert Royce, Henry Nobbs, and James Codner. John Hall, and David Long, convicted of beginning to demolish the dwelling-house of Mr. Robert Elwin, Baker, and also for demolishing the malt house of Mr. John Clover, are ordered for execution, but the time when is not yet known. His Majesty's lenity to the above unfortunate wretches, has greatly gained the hearts of the populace in general, who seem now entirely disposed to peace and good order.

Gloucester, Dec. 22. Upon the conclusion of our affizes on Friday evening, nine of the rioters received sentence of death; seven were cast for transportation; one ordered to be whipped; forty-three were discharged, and twenty-five admitted to bail upon entering into recognizance for their appearance at next affizes. Detainers have been lodged against eleven; so that now our castle is pretty well cleared.

HALIFAX, (in Nova-Scotia) November 29,

We learn by a gentleman lately returned from the river St. John's, that as James Simonds, Esq; an inhabitant of that place, with his people, was some time last fall, digging a foundation for a saw-mill at the mouth of a creek, upon the north-side, of the harbour, opposite Fort Frederick; after digging about 8 or 10 feet, came a cros and old wreck, several of the timbers, of which they dug up that were as found as when first taken from the stump, but turned black: the iron bolts that passed through the knees and other parts were all waisted to rust. By the size of the several pieces of timber taken out it must have been a ship of about 200 tons burthen. As this is but a small creek or rivulet, and the place where this wreck was found entirely out of the way of all winds and sea, the must have been a long time in burying so deep in the earth; and we think it very probable it might have been a ship that was unfited for the sea, and left there by Monf. L'Tour, about 130 years ago, who was then settled where Fort Frederick now stands, and carried on a great trade with the Indians of that river.

NEW-PORT, (in Rhode-Island) March 16.

A young Man, Servant to a Philadelphia Gentleman, riding very fast, on Horseback, a Mile or two out of Town, last Tuesday, by the Horse's tumbling, fell off, and was killed.

Wednesday, 11th Instant, the Mercury in Fahrenheit's Thermometer stood at 34: Thursday Morning it was 18; at One, it was 21, when the Cold increased, and the Mercury fell to 16 at Sun set, and to 11 by eleven o'Clock at Night. Friday Morning at 12, rose to 16, by Ten, to 21 and the one third at Noon, when it grew Colder, and at Two had descended to 19; then the Warmth returned, and at Five o'Clock in the Afternoon it was at 22; but at Sun-set descended to 19 and a half, and in the Evening became stationary at 17.— where it was found on Saturday Morning, the 14th Instant, from which Time the Weather moderated; for the Mercury rose to 20 at Noon, to 26 at Sun-set, and was 25 at Ten at Night; Lord's-Day at Noon 38; this Morning 40. The Observations were taken in Northern Shade. March 15, 1766, the Mercury stood at 10. In the Month of March, 1765, it was never lower than 26.

The Anniversary of the Repeal of the late Stamp-Act happens on Wednesday next, the Eighteenth Day of March,—a Day auspicious to America, and sacred to Liberty.—The Event of that Day will undoubtedly be celebrated, by the Friends of Freedom and this Country, for Ages to come: An Event the most important and interesting to this Continent of any since the Settlement thereof by British Subjects.—Had a Monarch of less Benignity and Clemency than GEORGE the Third sat on the British Throne, surrounded by a tyrannic Set of Greenwillians,—the Consequence of our noble Efforts, for the Preservation of Freedom, would have been shocking to Humanity. But, Thanks be to GOD, a PIT, a CONWAY, a BARRE, and a numerous List of other illustrious Worthies, the firm and undaunted Assertors of constitutional Freedom, appeared in the British Senate, and, with Ciceronian Eloquence, displayed the Justice of our Complaints;—our gracious and benign Sovereign espoused the Cause, and, let it for ever be remembered, on the GLORIOUS EIGHTEENTH DAY OF MARCH, ONE THOUSAND SEVEN HUNDRED AND SIXTY SIX, by his Royal Assent to an Act for repealing the Stamp-Act, diffused inexpressible Joy among Millions of his most faithful and loyal Subjects.—May the Importance of this memorable Transaction be fully transmitted to the latest Posterity;—and may the GLORIOUS ANNIVERSARY never pass unnoticed.

Mr. HOLT,
As the following Directions may be of great service to Individuals, whatever becomes of the Public, I beg you'd insert them in your next Paper.

PHILAUTUS.

An infallible Method to obtain REPUTATION.

PROTEST Solemnly, that you have done a Thousand Things, however improbable, which no Body else could ever do.—Shew both by Word and Action, that you think yourself a very clever Fellow,—and swear by G—d, you will do what no Body else ever could do.—Find Fault with every Thing done by any Body else,—give every Gentleman the Lie,—and call every one but yourself a Fool and a Blockhead.—Give no Reasons for your Opinions, but bold loud Asseverations; nor any for your Conduct, but your own good Pleasure; and Ridicule with an Horse-Laugh to Day, those Sentiments and that Conduct, which Yesterday were your own. Industiously shew your Learning in all Companies. Among the Religious, Curse and Swear like a Fury; among the Polite, practise the lowest Instances of ill-Breeding, and among all Sorts of People, defend to such gross Indelicacies in Language and Behaviour, as shall make every one in the Company Blush—but yourself. Thro' the whole of your Conduct, however selfish it may appear to some, maintain a steady Assurance, and solemnly swear your Views are absolutely and entirely disinterested. Such a Conduct as this, it seems, can scarce fail of Success, and will almost if not quite infallibly advance an aspiring Person to the utmost height of his Ambition.

TO BE SOLD, or LET,--A very fine farm, pleasantly situated on a public road, lying in Dutchess-county, and province of New-York, being part of lot No. 10, on the Oblong; containing 230 acres more or less, whereof about 120 is good meadow ground, lying in one body, on the east-side of Croton's-river; 40 acres is cleared, and yielded last year seventy tons of the best English hay; the rest under suitable improvement, will produce a much larger quantity: there is 50 acres of plough land cleared and within fence; the remainder is pasture and woods, the buildings are two dwelling-houses and a large barn all new; there are also 14 acres of wheat in the ground in fence; it lies near the Revd. Mr. Kent's meeting-house, and Simeon Ryder's mills, in a populous country, and good neighbourhood. Whoever inclines to purchase may apply to Thomas Clarke, at Greenwich, near New-York, or to Moss Kent, Esq: near the premises; there is also for sale, a Negro man, a complete farmer, brought up in New-England, aged 24 years, has had the small-pox, is sober, honest, industrious and ingenious; has lived some time with a wheel-wright, and is handy at keeping carriages in repair. Inquire of Thomas Clarke.

JOYCE'S Great WOUND BALSAM.

Which by it's surprising Efficacy, cures all Manner of Wounds, if curable; at the first Dressing sometimes, if recent and not dangerous; if nervous and seemingly dangerous, three, four, or six Dressings puts the Wound out of Danger, and quickly heals. The Method of using this Balsam, is, to wash the Wound with warm Wine or Spirits, then pour some Balsam into it, and close the Lips by Bandage, stitch, or otherwise; a Pledget of Lint, over the Wound, dipt in the Balsam, a Compress, and so bound up.

IT is excellent in the Cure of the most inveterate Ulcers, and Fistulas, altho' of long standing, by anointing and injecting into the Canals and Sinus. It softens and takes away almost all Manner of Swellings, and Bruises, and scatters coagulated Blood. Those that are affected with siveed awls, arising from the Tooth-Ach, Heat and Inflammation of the Gums, are immediately cured by anointing the Part with warm Balsam, and laying a Flannel Cloth over. For a Cough or Cold, it is a great Corrector, by taking twenty or thirty Drops, mixed with a Tea Spoon full of Sperma Ceti, in a Morning, and at Night, going to Bed. With many other Virtues too tedious to mention. Athose who try will find it to stand its Character.

Price Four Shillings per Phial, with Directions.

To be sold at Captain Koffler's, at York Ferry, Long-Island; at Samuel Kempton's Tin Shop, Rotten-Row, near the Coffee-House; at Mr. John Devan's, near the Old-Slip-Market; at Mr. Edward Joyce's Shop, near the Ferry, Long-Island, and at the Printer's, at the Exchange; and no where else.

N. B. Captain Koffler, and several others, can give its due Character, by Experience. 58 61

The SUBSCRIBER

PURPOSES to open a Morning and Evening School, for the Instruction of Youth in Writing and Arithmetic--to commence the first of April next, and continue to the first of October following--Attendance will be given from six to eight in the Morning, and from five to seven in the Evening precisely. It is imagined that this Plan may suit some of both Sexes, who attend other Places of Education at different Periods, for other Purposes. Whoever is pleased to Favour this Scheme, may depend on being served with Fidelity; as there will be no Deeds, Bills, Bonds, &c. or any Kind of Writing done, but such as will have a direct Tendency to promote the general Good of the School, which has constantly been the principal View of the Instructor, and on which Account he has rejected every Thing that he thought would be incompatible with the Duty of a Teacher. (62 65)

HUGH HUGHES.

To be told by the subscriber, on reasonable Terms. Plantation, lying on the great Road from Bound-Brook to Baskin-Ridge, and about 1 Miles from Bound-Brook; containing, besides the usual Allowance for high Ways, 103 Acres of Land, whereon is a good Logg-House, a living Spring at the Door, and about 30 Acres of cleared Land: Whoever inclines to purchase the said Place, may apply to CORNELIUS BOGART, on Rariton, in the Township of Bridgewater; who will give an indisputable Title for the same.

WE the Subscribers being appointed Trustees of the Estate of Benjamin Kellogg, of Ridgefield, in the County of Fairfield; hereby notify the said Kellogg's Creditors, to meet at the Dwelling House of John Whitlocke, in Ridgebury Parish, in said Town of Ridgefield, on the 6th Day of April next, at two o'Clock in the Afternoon; to approve or disapprove of all or any of said Trustees, and choose others in the Room of such as may be disapproved.

JOSEPH CRANE, Junr. } Trustees
SAMUEL STARR. }

Fairfield, in the Colony of Connecticut, March 7, 1767.

TO be SOLD at public vendue, on Tuesday the 31st instant, March, (or at any time before at private sale) a valuable farm, containing about 320 acres of land, situate in the Township of Amwell, in the county of Hunterdon, West-New-Jersey, about 200 acres thereof cleared, and in good fence, the remainder well timbered; it is good kind land for wheat, a sufficient quantity of meadow cleared, and in clover, timothy and spear grass, and more might be made, great part of which might readily be watered with little expence; on said premises is pleasantly situated a good brick house, genteelly finished, two stories high, 48 feet long, and 33 feet wide, cellars under the whole, four rooms on a floor, a fireplace in each, with a large entry, and the same above, a good brick kitchen and stove room adjoining, with a well of constant good water by the door; a new brick shop, a few rods from the house, with a counting-room, cellar, &c. a large frame barn, covered with cedar shingles, barracks, cow-house, &c. mostly new, and in good repair; several good bearing orchards, consisting of a large collection of the best grafted fruit; a stone grist mill laid in lime and sand, 50 feet long, and 40 feet wide, with two pair of stones, in good order, boulds, hoists, &c. by water; it stands on the south-branch of Rariton-River, a never failing stream of water, in the centre of a plentiful wheat country, where any quantity might be bought reasonably; it is 25 miles from Trenton, and the same distance from Brunswick, 22 miles from Delaware River, which is navigable great part of the year to Philadelphia, it being conveniently situated for New-York or Philadelphia markets, and a good place for trade, there having been a store kept for a number of years past; there is near the mill several convenient buildings for a miller, cooper, &c. The mill will be sold separate from the farm, it required, with a sufficiency of meadow, pasture, timber land, &c. to accommodate it, as might suit the purchaser. At the same time will be sold with the above farm, a lot of wood land, containing between 60 and 70 acres, well timbered, about 3 quarters of a mile distant, with good level ground for a road to the same.

It is expected the purchaser will pay one third of the purchase money on the executing the deed, one third a year after, and the remaining third at two years, or might have any reasonable time to make the two last payments, paying interest, and giving security if required. If it should suit the purchaser, they can have the stock on the farm at a very reasonable price, consisting of horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, and all sorts of farmers utensils, &c. also about 60 acres of green wheat and rye in the ground. An indisputable title will be given for the premises, by me (62 62) GEORGE READING.

To the Inhabitants of the City of New-York.

THE Subscriber has some time past, (and he trusts not without the approbation of his employers) taught a Grammar School, next door to Doctor Murray's at the Fly-market; and hopes, those who know the worth of learning, and the most advantageous method of acquiring it, will on being acquainted with his plan render it worth his while to pursue a branch of business on which the good of community so much depends.

The subscriber is very sensible, that a bare advertisement of a school, can be no proof of its worth; and therefore desires (nor is his desire insincere) that any of his patrons, or friends of literature, who think it not beneath them, to inspect seminaries of learning, will visit his school, and critically observe his method of government and instruction; and that none may be disappointed, he gives the following sketch of each. Nothing but instruction and correction disturbs the most profound silence,--all immorality is sure of the lash,--negligence of a frown, and industry of deserved praise. Instead of losing the improvement of half a day's study, and spending the time in contracting idle and vicious habits, his pupils by attending school, Thursday's in the afternoon, gain the advantage of near a day in the week. His method of instruction is very different from that of any teacher in town. It is that used and recommended from long experience, by the late Rev. Doctor Finley, and at present practised by Messrs. Reques and Pemberton, at Elizabeth-Town; whether it be good or bad is refer'd to the determination of the reader. He takes not a little pains to assist nature in making his pupils orators: With what success those who will be kind enough to visit his school may observe.

He also teaches geometry, trigonometry, algebra, surveying, and navigation. His price for instruction is 36s. per quarter; but as doubtless some estimate learning by the expence of acquiring it, he will take something more rather than lose a pupil. He also proposes about the first of April, to open a school to begin at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, for the assistance of young ladies in the study of geography, and logic. He will be glad to serve such as shall think him worthy their encouragement, but employment from others, is not desired by

The public's humble servant

To the PRINTER.

Whether or no the following Letters (being from a Clergyman to a young Woman in London, with her Answer (have as yet been published, is uncertain; however, the inserting them in the PENNSYLVANIA CHRONICLE, will particularly oblige

VARRONIUS.

To L A V I N I A.

HARK how the sacred Thunder rends the Skies!
Repent and be baptiz'd, CHRIST's Herald cries,
Repent and be baptiz'd, consenting Heav'n replies.
And can Lavinia unaffected hear
The awful Message echoing in her Ear?
Will my Lavinia unconverted prove,
Rebel to God, and faithless unto Love?
Say, shall a Parent's absolute Command
The mighty Voice of God himself withstand?
Shall heavenly Calls to earthly Ties give Place,
And filial Fondness frustrate Christian Grace?
Shall human Wit Omniscience engage,
Should Barclay endless War with Jesus wage?
Must each Apostle wave his Claim to Merit,
That Fox may shine first Martyr of the Spirit?
Must common Sense be banish'd from the Soul,
E'er Gospel Salve can make the Sinner whole?
Must each Adept in Calvary's great School,
Be not in Meekness, but in Fact a Fool?
Must Paul at Corinth be a Babler too?
And Peter, when a Baptist, be a Jew?
Must Philip's Process be superfluous thought,
Because he wash'd the Eunuch he had taught?
Must Fœd'ral Rites be metaphor'd away?
And actual Homage construed disobedience?
Such juggling Art may change each Part of Speech;
Make Water, Spirit; and baptize to teach:
But if such Jargon Jesus represents,
The Light, indeed, is lent alone to Saints;
Then in the Letter double Death we find,
And CHRIST in Figure only sav'd Mankind.

L A V I N I A's ANSWER.

HARK how the sacred Thunder rends the Skies!
Repent and be baptiz'd, CHRIST's Herald cries,
Repent and be baptiz'd, consenting Heaven replies.

The Christian Heart reveres the solemn sound,
And deeply humbled treads the sacred Ground;
Owns the Injunction's undisputed Claim,
Its awful Import, and its glorious Aim!
But here a Difference mutual Zeal excites,
You plead for outward, we for mental Rites:
We think the Gospel's hallow'd Page inspires
Superior Efforts, nor one Type requires,
Since no Lavations can effectual prove
The innate Stains of Nature to remove;
No Mode of Words true Purity impart,
To an infantile and unconscious Heart;
As vain and fictitious hence we disallow,
The faithless Surety and Baptismal Vow,
As being Shadows; which Men may observe,
While from the Substance flagrantly they swerve;
While superstitious Rites their Time divide,
They cease to follow Virtue as their Guide;
Enslav'd by Canons and the partial Rules,
Of Councils, Synods, Colleges and Schools.
Thus might Mankind (for some an ample Field)
To Circumcision's ancient Custom yield,
Or humbly prostrate in the public Street,
With blind Devotion wash each other's Feet:
'Tis thus that Holiness to Form gives Place,
And solemn trifling "frustrates Christian Grace!"

In Jordan's Pool well pleas'd th' Almighty saw,
His Son-below'd submitting to the Law; (§)
But his Apostles thro' the World he sent,
With a Baptizing Power beyond the Element:
This Power does all true Ministry attend,
'Twas promis'd—And will never have an End:
This mighty Power His Herald did proclaim,
"He shall baptize you with an Holy Flame!"
Yet Water was in Use; an ancient Right,
Allow'd the common Way to Profelyte,
But no Dependence plac'd thereon you'll see,
And Paul and Peter, in this Point agree. (†)
Then real Christians with illumin'd Thought,
View Truth unbiased as its Author taught:
No Typic Observations are rever'd,

(§) Mat iii, ver. 14, 15. (†) 1 Cor. iv, 17.
Peter iii, ver. 21.

Since their immortal Archetype appear'd!
Fox preach'd this Doctrine to a seeking Age;
It shines in Barclay's unrefuted Page:
Simple their Scheme, no mean Self-love they knew,
But freely preach'd without a sordid View:
With Hearts devoted, Gospel Truths display'd,
And scorn'd to make Divinity a Trade:
No juggling Arts e'er us'd, no low disguise,
O'er obvious Texts and Sense to tyrannize;
Discerning Truth by its own native Light,
And by its Guidance practis'd what was right.
This State attain'd—Prophetic Signs no more,
Demand Observance as in Days of Yore;
'Tis Grace alone exalted and refin'd,
Imparts Instruction to the attentive Mind,
Convicts of Error, and restrains from Sin;
For what these are is manifest within. (‡)
Each wayward Passion by its Aid subdu'd,
The Soul's enthron'd in native Rectitude;
Cleans'd of its Stains, and sprinkled from above;
With pure Descendings of atoning Love;
A Baptism this essential you will find,
Or—CHRIST in Figure only sav'd Mankind,
This then alone my suppliant Spirit craves,
Since but one Lokb, one Faith, one Baptism saves, (¶)

B O S T O N, March 16.

We hear that the General Assembly last Week made choice of his Hon. Lieut. Governor Hutchinson, the Honourable William Brattle, Esq; and Capt. Edward Sheaffe, Commissaries on the Part of this Government, to settle the Line with the Commissaries from New-York; between the two Provinces:

March 9. We hear that Mr. William Forbisher of this Town, Soap Boiler, has made a Process with Pot-Ash in making the very best of Hard Soap, which has not hitherto been practis'd in England, Samples of which he purposes to send Home, and if approved of, as is highly probable, will prevent the Importation of Barilla Ash from Spain, which they before made Use of, and will take off from the Colonies near 20 Tons of Pot-Ash to one that the Soft Soap Maker's use, said Forbisher has given out that he can reduce Pot-Ash to a certain Standard; if so, 'tis worthy the Consideration of the Guardians of this people.

Q U E B E C, March 2.

The Honourable the Lieutenant Governor of this Province, has been pleased to respite the Execution of John Crabtree and George Butler, till the 12th of April next.

Tuesday last set out from this City, for Montreal, in Order to hold the Assizes there, which began last Saturday, the Honourable William Hey, Esq; His Majesty's Chief Justice, and Francis Mafers, Esq; His Majesty's Attorney General: And on Wednesday following His Excellency the Hon. GUY CARLETON, Esq; Lieutenant Governor of this Province, accompanied by several Gentlemen of Distinction, set out for the same Place.

On Friday last a Coroner's Inquest was held, at the Intendant's Palace, on the Body of Hanna M'Cook, the Wife of a Soldier in the 52d Regiment, She died of a Wound she had received, three Days before, on the left Side of her Head, by a violent Blow given her with a Club or Bludgeon, by George Norton, Soldier in the said Regiment, which forc'd in the Skull to such a Degree, that, notwithstanding the utmost Care and Skill of two able Doctors of the Army, she expired the 27th Ult. The Jury's Verdict was, wilful Murder.

L O N D O N,

Extract of a letter from Genoa, Dec. 17.

Last Monday the plan of the conciliating treaty which France would have forced upon us, was rejected by a majority of 1095 votes against 515. Yesterday the French Ambassador sent for the 24 commissaries empowered by the citizens to treat with the mediators, & told them, That he had orders from his most Christian Majesty, in case this treaty should be rejected, to break all connections with the Republic, and life delivered them accordingly the French King's declaration to that purpose. God knows what will be the consequences of this event; however, we are in high spirits; and in hopes that the union that has subsisted amongst us the representing citizens, will enable us to preserve our dear liberties, notwithstanding all attempts made against them by our perfidious magistrates, and their avowed Protectors, the French ministry.

His Polish Majesty, in a speech lately made in full dyet, addressing himself to the Prince Straznick de Lubomirsky (just appointed Grand Marshall of the Crown) said, "Though called to the ministry by the nation, and by me; though your intentions are good, and you really do what is right; yet Prince! you will meet with difficulties, contradictions, and ill-will. Be prepared for it; it is the fate attending high stations; kings are not exempted. The most toilsome cares, the most useful projects, are often misapprehended, misinterpreted."

Province of New-Jersey, December 3, 1766.

WHEREAS a Law was passed in New-Jersey the 20th of June 1765, appointing Commissioners to run out straight public Roads through said Province, between New-York and Philadelphia, and empowering them to raise a Sum of Money by a public Lottery, not exceeding £.500, towards defraying the Charge thereof; accordingly a Lottery was thereupon soon after set on Foot, but from the troubled State of Affairs at that Time, occasioned by the Stamp Act, the Proceedings of the said Lottery were delayed; but as it is apprehended that the salutary Purpose might now be effected, the Managers therein appointed have thought fit for that End, to revive the following Scheme of a Lottery, to consist of 2222 Tickets, at 4 Dollars each; 662 of which are to be fortunate as follows:

Prize of Dollars, 750	is Dollars, 750
1	500
1	250
1	100

1 first Drawn	14
1 last Drawn	14

662 Prizes, 1560 Blanks,
2222 Tickets, at 4 Dollars each, are 8888£.3333

From which a Deduction of 15 per Cent. is £.1333 19 0, and is proposed to be drawn on the first Tuesday in April next, at Perth-Amboy, or sooner if full: The fortunate Numbers are to be printed in the New-York and Pennsylvania Papers, as soon as possible after the Drawing, which will be directed by John Stevens, James Parker of Perth-Amboy; John Wetherill of the Township of New-Brunswick; Daniel Ellis of Burlington, and John Edwards of Bordentown, who are appointed Managers and Commissioners for the Road leading from the Ferry-house, opposite Perth-Amboy, to Burlington; and John Berrien, of Rocky-hill; Daniel Cox, of Trenton; Azariah Dunham, of New-Brunswick; Ephraim Terrill, and Abraham Clark, jun. of Elizabeth-Town; who are likewise appointed Managers, and Commissioners for the Road leading from Newark and Elizabeth-Town, to Trenton and Borden Town agreeable to said Act; and are to be under Oath for the due and impartial Performance of their Duties.

The shortening and improving the public Roads through this Province, will be a great Advantage to the commercial Interest and general Convenience of the Inhabitants thereof, as well as a very general Advantage to the Neighbouring Provinces, particularly to Pennsylvania and New-York; and as it is the first Thing of the Kind that has been attempted on the Continent, it is not doubted but every public spirited Person in this, as well as the Neighbouring Provinces, will generously contribute to an Undertaking, tending so greatly to the Advantage and Ease of Men of Business and Pleasure; as it is judged the Distance between New York and Philadelphia will be shorten'd 12 or 15 Miles, and the Roads all made more passable and convenient for Travellers in the Winter Season than the Present.

Tickets are to be had of Daniel Ellis of Burlington, Daniel Cox of Trenton, James Parker of Perth-Amboy, and Abraham Clark, jun. of Elizabeth-Town, and of all the other Managers in Jersey, at their respective Dwellings.

NOTICE is hereby given, to all the Creditors of Zachariah Sickels, an absconding Debtor, of Brooklyn, in King's-County, to appear at the House of Doctor Van Beuren, at Flatbush, in said County, on Wednesday the 27th Day of May next, at 10 of the Clock in the Forenoon; to receive their Dividend, of said Sickels's Estate.

TO BE SOLD,

A Plantation very well improved, containing 312 acres of good land, deem'd to be some of the best in the parts, well watered, timbered and fenced; lying at a place called Squancom, in the township of Shrewsbury, and the county of Monmouth, New-Jersey; the up lands afford good pasturage, as we as grain of all sorts peculiar to the climate; the meadows abound with grafs of a the kinds for fodder, and in season may be cut thereon enough to winter one hundred head of cattle, whilst more may be improved to the same advantage; (to this may be added the benefit of thousands of acres of land, and meadows for summer range, which it is likely will not be improved in one century.) On it is a saw mill with two saws, seated on one of the best and most plentiful streams in the province, which never fails in the greatest drought, to which may be easily added, a grist or fulling mill or both, as there is plenty of water, in a growing part of the country, which increases its inhabitants; lands daily rising in value, and huntman's toil paid with the best of venison, wild turkies and other game. It is conveniently seated for a shop-keeper, as there is none within 10 miles to supply a thick settled and growing part of the country. On the same is two tenements, besides a mill house for the sawyer, a good large barn, a bearing young orchard, yielding 50 barrels of cyder, from the best of grafted fruit, with a variety of other fruit trees. For further particulars enquire of Doctor Richard Stillwell in Middletown, or the Subscriber, living on the premises, by whom a good and indisputable title will be given or made to any purchaser.

OBEDIAH WORTHLEY.
